

Technology + Expertise: That's Tangible

At Tangible, we're driven by our mission to make private markets more liquid.

Who are we?

We're a fast-growing team of 40+ builders on a mission to transform private markets. Our products make it easier for LPs to sell on the secondary market and empower GPs and wealth managers to deliver scalable liquidity solutions for their investors.

Our leadership team

Tangible's team combines deep private markets and regulatory experience with engineering excellence.

Khalil Hibri

Co-Founder - Managing Partner

Khalil's background in private equity helped him see the need for liquidity in private markets. He previously served as a partner at Excelsa, a real estate private equity firm with $1 billion of assets under management, where he led group-level business development and investor relations. His investment experience includes buyouts, real estate and industrials.

Nathan Sutton

Co-Founder - Managing Partner

Nathan understands the needs of private investors, drawing from his 15+ years working in the sector. Before joining Tangible, he was a founding partner and operator of Sinaxia, a permanent capital private equity firm. Nathan has invested on behalf of state-owned enterprises, family offices and corporations. He has extensive experience in deal origination, building businesses, cross-border deal making and fundraising.
